BY-LAWS of the
MAINE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

REVISED AND RE-ADOPTED JUNE 9, 1926.

HOW COMPOSED.

SECTION 1. The Society shall consist of active, corresponding, honorary and life members.

ACTIVE MEMBERS.

SECTION 2. Active members may or may not be residents of Maine. In addition to the admission fee of ten dollars, each active member shall pay annual dues of three dollars. Any active member may become a life member by payment to the Society of one hundred dollars in addition to previous payments, whereupon such member shall be exempted from annual dues. Life members shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of active members. Only active and life members shall have the right to vote.

CORRESPONDING MEMBERS.

SECTION 3. Non-residents of the State may be elected corresponding members, and when an active member removes from the State he may become a corresponding member and be relieved from the payment of annual dues. When a corresponding member takes up his residence in the State he may become an active member by paying the admission fee of ten dollars and the annual dues. Corresponding members have all the rights and privileges of active members, except voting and holding office. Corresponding members may become life members upon the payment of one hundred dollars.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

SECTION 4. Any person who shall have attained an eminent distinction in history or kindred subjects, or shall have done eminent service in promoting the objects of this Society, or who has been an active member for a period of not less than thirty years, may be elected an honorary member with the rights and privileges of a corresponding member.

MEMBERS, HOW NOMINATED.

SECTION 5. Nominations of active and corresponding members may be made in writing by an active member, and filed with the Recording Secretary, and by him submitted to a Committee on Membership, which shall consist of five members, elected at the annual meeting of the Society.

Nominations for honorary membership shall be made by an active member directly to the Society, at the annual meeting, and may be acted upon at the same meeting.

MEMBERS, HOW ELECTED.

SECTION 6. Election of members shall be made by the Membership Committee. No more than one nomination for honorary membership shall be submitted to vote at a time. This latter vote shall be taken by written ballot, each member voting yes or no, and four-fifths of the votes must be in the affirmative to elect the nominee.

FORFEITURE OF MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 7. Any active member who shall neglect to pay his annual dues for five years may forfeit his membership upon vote of the Society at an annual meeting.

ANNUAL MEETING.

SECTION 8. The annual meeting shall be held in Portland on the second Wednesday in June.

At the annual meeting any business which the Society may lawfully transact may be done, except amendment of these by-laws, although notice thereof may not have been given in the call.

SPECIAL MEETINGS.

SECTION 9. Special meetings for the transaction of business may be called by the President, or in his absence by the Vice-President, and he shall call a meeting on the written application of a majority of the Standing Committee or of ten active members. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting which is not specified in the call of such meeting.

BUSINESS MEETINGS, HOW NOTIFIED.

SECTION 10. Notice of the annual meeting and of the time, place and objects of special meetings shall be given by mail to all members entitled to vote at least seven days before said meeting.

QUORUM.

SECTION 11. Nine voting members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except that no election of members shall take place and no alteration of the by-laws be made unless fifteen voting members are present.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

SECTION 12. At all meetings, as soon as the President has taken the chair, the record of the preceding meeting shall be read, after which, at special meetings, the business for which the meeting was called shall be transacted; and at the annual meetings the order of business shall be as follows, unless the Society shall otherwise order, viz.:

1st. The Librarian and Curator shall make a detailed report of whatever has been received by them since the last meeting.

2nd. The Corresponding Secretary may read any communication he may have received.

3rd. The Treasurer shall make his annual report.

4th. The unfinished business and assignments of the last meeting shall be announced to the President and taken up in their order.

5th. The Standing Committee shall be called upon to report its doings since the last annual meeting.

6th. Reports from other committees may be called for, after which members may submit any propositions or communications on the objects of the Society and discuss any subjects proposed.

OFFICERS.

SECTION 13. The officers shall consist of President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, Biographer, Librarian, Curator, and a Standing Committee of not more than fourteen or less than twelve, of which the President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer shall be members ex-officio.

OFFICERS, HOW CHOSEN.

SECTION 14. The officers shall be elected at the annual meeting by written ballot, and shall hold their respective offices for one year, or until others are chosen in their stead.

VACANCIES, HOW FILLED.

SECTION 15. A vacancy occurring in any office may be filled until the next annual meeting by appointment by the Standing Committee. If the officer thus appointed be required to give a bond it shall be subject to approval by said committee.

THE PRESIDENT.

SECTION 16. The President, when present, shall preside at all meetings of the Society, and in his absence the Vice-President. In the absence of both, a temporary President shall be chosen by hand vote. The President shall be ex-officio chairman of the Standing Committee. He shall appoint such committees as he deems necessary.

THE RECORDING SECRETARY.

SECTION 17. The Recording Secretary shall keep an exact record of all meetings of the Society and of the meetings of the Standing Committee, and shall give notice of all meetings of the Society.

THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

SECTION 18. The Corresponding Secretary shall carry on the correspondence of the Society not otherwise provided for, and deposit copies of the letters sent, and the original letters received, in regular files in the library. He shall notify members elect of their election, and those elected active members of the terms of their admission.

TREASURER.

SECTION 19. The Treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to the Society, and shall make and keep fair entries in a book to be kept for that purpose of all moneys and funds of the Society that may come to his hands, and of all receipts and expenditures connected with the same, which accounts shall be open to the inspection of the members; and at every annual meeting shall exhibit in writing to the Society a statement of his accounts and of the funds of the Society, and the condition of all the property entrusted to him. He shall give bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars.

An auditor shall be appointed by the Standing Committee to examine the Treasurer's accounts for the year, and report thereon at the first succeeding meeting of said committee.

THE BIOGRAPHER.

SECTION 20. It shall be the duty of the Biographer to report at each annual meeting the necrology of the members for the year.

STANDING COMMITTEE.

SECTION 21. The Standing Committee shall exercise the following powers:

1st. They shall make rules and regulations for use and government of the library and other property of the Society.

2nd. It shall be a part of their duty to inquire for and take judicious measures within the means of the Society to procure books, manuscripts and relics of historical interest for the benefit of the institution.

3rd. They shall prepare such business as may deserve the attention of the Society.

4th. They shall approve the bond of any officer of the Society required to give a bond.

5th. In the absence of a specific vote of the Society, all investments and changes in securities shall be under their direction.

6th. They may appoint a committee on publications and also a Finance Committee. The Finance Committee, of which the Treasurer shall be a member ex-officio and shall act as Secretary, shall investigate all proposed investments of funds and changes of investments, and determine upon the same.

THE LIBRARY AND CABINET.

SECTION 22. Once every year the Standing Committee shall report to the Society respecting the state of the library and cabinet.

LIBRARIAN.

SECTION 23. The Librarian shall, at every meeting of the Standing Committee, report in writing all accessions made to the library and cabinet since the preceding meeting, and at the annual meeting submit a detailed report of the condition and number of volumes and pamphlets in the library.

BY-LAWS, HOW AMENDED.

SECTION 24. These by-laws may be altered or amended at any annual meeting of the Society, provided the amendment has been proposed at a previous annual meeting or at any meeting when notice of the proposed amendment is given in the call of the meeting.
